Annie Jr. -- The first Broadway-style musical to be performed at Alan Shawn Feinstein Middle School (ASFMS) of Coventry, will be presented Friday, Feb. 28, at 7 p.m. with two performances on Saturday, March 1 – at 1 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Tickets are $7.00 and are being sold in advance through the Middle School office during school hours. Under age 5 will be admitted free. There will be very limited tickets available at the door. The school is located at 15 Foster Drive, Coventry, RI 02816.

More Than fifty middle school students are involved in this production, which is a licensed version of the hit Broadway musical Annie that is specifically designed to fit into the budget and abilities of talented middle school students. These committed students have been rehearsing since October for the production and are thrilled to be able to present this level of performance at the school.

The show is being directed by Mrs. Lori LeBrun, a guidance counselor at the school, along with two ASFMS teachers – Mrs. Kristen St. Sauveur, who teaches Chorus; and Mrs. Lisa Lachance, who teaches 6th grade English Language Arts. All three women have been involved in music throughout their lives. There are numerous other teachers, staff members, students, and parents who have dedicated many volunteer hours to this production.

For more information, please call the Alan Shawn Feinstein Middle School at (401) 822-9426. Ticket orders may also be placed by e-mailing Lori LeBrun at lebrunlori@coventryschools.net.
