

FMS says thanks with sweet treats

Coventry middle school holding 1st appreciation bake

KENDRA LEIGH MILLER

kmiller@ricentral.com

COVENTRY — In the holiday spirit of showing thanks, the Alan Shawn Feinstein Middle School Improvement Committee and the Community Engagement Committee, is sponsoring their first Good Neighbor Holiday Appreciation Bake.

ASFMS Principal Arthur Lisi explained how students, facility and staff are thankful for all the members of the community who support Coventry Public Schools and help to make Coventry a great place to live.

“To show our appreciation and in the spirit of giving back to our community this holiday season, the School Improvement Committee is sponsoring our first Good Neighbor Holiday Appreciation Bake,” Lisi said. “We have purchased 192 holiday motif ceramic bake pans and students are purchasing them for $1, then baking holiday breads and cakes to be distributed to groups in the community such as the neighbors around the school, the Coventry Senior Center, the library, public works, police and fire departments, parks and recreation, the Coventry VFW, school committee, town council and town manager’s office, bus drivers and ASFMS kitchen and custodial staff.

“We want to give back to these groups for being so great,” he said. “For making

Bake says thanks to community

Continued from Page A-1

the town great, keeping our roads and bus stops clear, to the library for the wonderful programs, for keeping our kids safe, for the wonderful programs for the parks and recreation.”

The goodies will be delivered by facility, parents and students on Wednesday.